

Africa Week 2010

Energy Workshop

New Opportunities in the East African Energy Market with the Emergence of a New Sudan

Program

Right of alternation reserved

Tuesday, November, 16th 2010, World Trade Center Dresden

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| 08.30 – 09.00 | Registration of participants |
| 09.00 – 09.30 | Opening remarks
Welcome and Workshop presentation |
| 09.30 – 10.00 | “Presentation of the pioneer country in East Africa - Tanzania”
Caeser Chacha Waitara, 1. Secretary, Embassy of Tanzania |
| 10.00 – 10.30 | Health break |
| 10.30 – 11.00 | “Sudan in transition”
Kulong Manytuil, Counsellor, Embassy of Sudan |
| 11.00 – 11.30 | “The new regional scenario with the Emergence of a new Sudan”
Dr. Francis G. Nazario, Head of Mission, Government of South Sudan Brussels |

- 11.30 – 12.00 “Solutions for flat roofs in Africa”
Thomas Pellkofer, USE Projects GmbH
- 12.00 – 13.00 Lunch break
Chance to exchange views with German exhibitors from the Energy sector in the hall of the World Trade Center
- 13.00 – 13.30 “Funding opportunities for Africa by the European Union”
Frank Bösenberg, Eurogrant GmbH
- 13.30 – 14.00 “Project financing in East Africa”
Simon Kroop and Bob Hooda, Wipro GmbH
- 14.00 – 14.30 “PV market in Africa – an overview”
Jürgen Raach, Solar23
- 14.30 – 15.00 Health break
- 15.00 – 15.30 “Increasing energy demand – access to electricity in rural areas”
Bob Hooda, Dipl.-Ing.
- 15.30 – 16.00 “Purpose and economy of small water plants for energy supply in decentralised rural areas in Africa”
Mario Spiewack, Networkmanager Fluss-Strom
- 16.00 – 16.30 “Economic feasibility of photovoltaic in Africa”
Jürgen Raach, Solar23
- 16.30 – open-end One-to-one discussions

Open discussion with foreign and German speakers and the patronage of the Workshop Thomas Jurk (former Minister of Economic Affairs of the State of Saxony). Furthermore mingle with African exhibitors in the Hall of the World Trade Center.